

Why you are best off with Swiss Life.

Swiss Life ...

...is a Swiss company with over 150 years of occupational pensions experience.
...insures about 38 000 companies with approximately 600 000 insured persons amounting to a premium volume of about CHF 7.4 billion.
...has about CHF 50 billion under management for corporate clients. This makes it one of the biggest occupational pension providers in Switzerland.
...it is a major asset manager and the biggest private real estate owner in Switzerland.
... is involved in a number of cooperative ventures with market leaders and offers its corporate clients much more than occupational pension provision.
...has the solution to every need and situation.

Maximum security

- as a solid company Swiss Life is a reliable partner for you – now and in the future. Group solvency of 210 % in December 2013 is extremely secure given that the required level is 100 %.
- was recently upgraded by Standard & Poor's to A- (stable).
- invests pension assets in a very balanced and low-risk investment portfolio.

Maximum interest

- Swiss Life has the highest overall interest of all insurers (full insurance) by long-term comparison over a number of different periods while also offering the best possible security.*
- performed very well in the pension fund comparison conducted by the "SonntagsZeitung" in June 2014: 1st place in the category "Best investment return over the last nine years".

* Source: Weibel, Hess und Partner and SonntagsZeitung

Best benefits

- pays disability income from a degree of disability of 25 %.
- insures partner's pension without additional premium: the life partner does not have to be officially registered to qualify for this cover.

Comprehensive advice

- provides you with competent support for all questions related to occupational provisions. Swiss Life will provide you with a comprehensive service in private and occupational pension provision, tax optimisation, pension planning and succession regulation.

The most straightforward administration

- guarantees straightforward and convenient administration of your occupational provisions through the online portal "Swiss Life myLife". The most modern administration platform on the market reveals your contract details at the click of a mouse. Changes (e. g. registering a new employee, salary changes etc.) can be performed easily and independently. The system can also show the effects of future pension-related events through simulated calculations.

