

Financing early retirement

What you need to know

When is it possible to make purchases to finance early retirement?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • My regulations (pension plan) must contain provisions regarding financing early retirement. • I have fully exploited all other purchase options. • I have repaid all transferred vested benefits as a result of divorce/dissolution of a registered partnership. • I notify the employee benefits institution of my planned retirement age. • I inform the employee benefits institution of my percentage level of early retirement. • The employee benefits institution opens a special account for purchases for me.
How are purchase sums calculated?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The provisions contained in the regulations apply. • My employee benefits institution calculates the possible purchase sum for me.
I have other pension plan savings (e.g. a vested benefits account).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I have to disclose my other pension plan savings. The purchase sum is generally reduced by these amounts.
I have built up assets in pillar 3a from self-employment.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I must disclose these assets. They are taken into account in the calculation of the purchase sum.
What advantages do I have with a purchase?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The gap in retirement benefits which arises upon early retirement is fully or partially bridged. • My tax burden is reduced.
What is the tax situation?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I must be able to prove that I am financing the purchase with my private income. • I deduct the purchase sum from my taxable income in my tax declaration. • From a tax point of view, the purchase and the deduction must take place in the same tax year. • If a lump-sum withdrawal is made within three years of the purchase, current tax authority practice is not to recognize the tax deductibility of the purchase for income tax purposes. A lump-sum payment within three years of a purchase can therefore be disadvantageous from an income tax perspective. • The relevant tax authority rules assesses the tax deductibility. The employee benefits institution has no influence on this decision and assumes no liability in this regard.
What happens if I retire after the specified retirement age?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I receive a maximum of 105% of the retirement benefits which are specified at normal retirement age. • I may lose all or part of the money in the special account. • I can find detailed provisions in the appendix to the Basic Provisions.
I have withdrawn a prepayment for home ownership.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Until three years before normal retirement age, I can only make a purchase if the prepayment has been repaid in full.
What is the situation upon divorce?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the event of divorce/dissolution of a registered partnership, purchases are shared according to the law, if necessary. • No limitations apply to a repurchase of transferred vested benefits as a result of divorce/dissolution of a registered partnership until normal retirement age. This also applies in relation to income tax purposes, i.e. a lump-sum withdrawal within three years of a repurchase following divorce is not disadvantageous.
I am about to retire.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can make a purchase up until one month before normal retirement age, however at the latest until early retirement. • If I make purchases in the last three years before retirement, the resultant benefits will always be paid out as a pension. • Tax deduction may not be permitted.

What you need to know

What is the taxation situation upon retirement?

- Lump-sum withdrawals are taxed separately from other income at a reduced rate, provided no purchases were made in the last three years.
 - Pension benefits are taxed at the normal rate with other income.

I moved to Switzerland within the last five years.

- If I have not belonged to a Swiss employee benefits institution before, I can make an annual purchase in the first five years of a maximum of 20% of my insured salary.

What else should I note when making a purchase?

- A purchase of benefits in the employee benefits institution is irreversible.
 - For a period of three years, I am not able to make a lump-sum withdrawal of benefits from the purchase (e.g. prepayment for home ownership).
 - For the purchase to be taken into account in the current tax year, the payment must reach the employee benefits institution by 31 December at the latest (please note bank holidays).
